

ROSALBA CASIRAGHI

Independent Director

Born in Milan in 1950, she graduated in Business Economics at the Bocconi University. She is a statutory auditor.

She began her career at Carrier, under the Utc group, in management control, becoming its manager. She then became manager, as financial director, of Italy's distribution company of Yamaha Motors co.

After these experiences he undertook entrepreneurial and professional activities taking positions as director and auditor in industrial and financial companies.

In recent years she has collaborated on the publication of various books on control systems and corporate governance as well as with the economic press, in particular for many years she has provided technical advice on economic and financial issues.

He is currently Chairwoman of Illimity Bank, Chairwoman of Eni's Board of Statutory Auditors, Director of the Spagnoli group as well as Statutory Auditor of Sea and Whirlpool Emea.
