PRESS RELEASE

Milan, 28 June 2022 – With reference to today's press rumors related to a possible transaction involving an industrial combination with the Dufry Group, Autogrill announces, to the extent of its competence and also on the basis of the information received from the controlling shareholder Edizione S.p.A., that there are ongoing discussions, without any exclusivity, regarding a possible integration between the two Groups.

As previously communicated, Autogrill is interested in evaluating strategic opportunities aiming at promoting and developing the Group as well as creating value for all its stakeholders.

Autogrill will promptly inform the market if the legal requirements are met.
